

DOE Support of Exhibition of Low Carbon Solutions during COP21

Clean Energy Trade Pavilion at COP21

- Located at La Galerie
- International Low Carbon Solution Providers
- Focused on attracting the 20k+ attendees
- U.S. Pavilion lead by Foreign Commercial Service
- Next to the COP21 Blue Zone
- Booths priced at 6541 Euros (approx. $7264)
- Coordinated by the FCS and DOE Paris Offices

LA GALERIE

COP21 CONNECTED AREAS

DOE Activities at the Pavilion

- Key Note Presentations
- Roundtable/Panel Discussions
 - DOE Deployment Support Programs (e.g. Loan Program Office)
 - Advanced Research Presentations
 - Public - Private Collaboration opportunities
 - Clean Energy Financing
 - Accelerating access to emerging technologies
- Extend Question and Answer Times
- Published DOE Leader Visit times to the Pavilion

Next Steps

- Identify Stake Holders with DOE
- Determine if the Department wants a booth
- Establish whether Labs participate and how.
- Decide if/how to integrate with Theme days such as Innovation or Transportation days
- Integrate DOE technology messaging
- Interagency Meeting on 9 Sept

Bob Ivy
International Affairs, IA-1
202-586-7112
Robert.ivy@hq.doe.gov