

Opportunities to enter the China and Hong Kong Markets

The Director of the Missouri International Trade and Investment Office of China and Hong Kong, Mr. James Robinson and his team will visit Missouri in the week of December 5, 2016.

Please join us to learn more about the updates on the market and catch the opportunities to get into the market. The Greater China market is one of the largest but toughest markets in the world. The director will give the presentation on the opportunities and challenges you will have and some solutions as well.

After the presentation the Director will hold one-on-one meetings with MO businesses to discuss some strategies, market insights as well as some regulations etc.
